

Governance & Risk Posture

Summary for Ministries

Public summary

Terra Vita Hub is a controlled governance environment that strengthens institutional decision integrity without replacing statutory authority.

All approvals remain with ministries and designated committees.

The platform provides traceable evidence, logged reviewer actions, escalation routes, and audit-ready decision posture.

Data sovereignty, access control, and export rules are configurable to national requirements.

A full governance and risk-assurance framework is available inside the protected workspace.